London Design Festival 2022

At LDF, we are delighted to be launching our furniture designs, suitable for Corporate, Hospitality, Build to Rent & Co-Working spaces at Echelon Workplaces showroom in Golden Lane, Clerkenwell. Our designs will feature top fabric brands, showcasing the most popular and sustainable options.

You are invited to our "Roger Lewis Arrives"! VIP Preview Breakfast – Tues 20th September – 8.30am – 10.30am, Echelon Workplaces, 108-114 Golden Lane, London EC1Y 0TG

Working alongside Echelon, we would be delighted to talk to you about how we support designers, our furniture collection, fabric choices and our ongoing journey to a sustainable and circular furniture future.

This event is invite only, so please RSVP: Cathy@rogerlewis.uk 07711 221206

About Roger Lewis

Roger Lewis has been crafting beautiful furniture for 34 years, now specialising in providing high-quality 'made to order' packages for corporate and hospitality projects. Drawing inspiration from a global world, we create modern, comfortable furniture for flexible working, collaborating, and relaxing.

Now a leading supplier of furniture in the UK's build-to-rent market, we work with specifiers and interior designers to create exacting products for their projects. From this demand we have developed a distinctive customisable collection of furniture that is produced in our new, sustainable factory in Somerset.
